

Session 7: Scenarios

- A. It is your first day in a new job. You sit down at the lunch table with some of your colleagues who are talking about a new film that deals with the end of the world.
- B. A family has moved in next door. You pop in to say hello and notice lots of books on New Age spirituality.
- C. A close personal friend comes round to see you. They are distraught at the news that their mother has a terminal illness.
- D. The person in the seat next to you on a journey tells you they believe in reincarnation.
- E. You meet an old friend in the shopping centre. They attended church but never really made a commitment and drifted away. It emerges that since they stopped attending church they have had a series of misfortunes.
